

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

VS.

DOUGLAS S. FLAGG,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 8:08CR357

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

The Court has received the Revised Presentence Investigation Report (“PSR”) in this case. The parties have not objected to the PSR, although the Defendant objected informally to the probation officer. See Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The government adopted the PSR. (Filing No. 21.) The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 2005 WL 50108 (U.S. Jan. 12, 2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

The Defendant objected informally to the probation officer with respect to dates during which the Defendant was noncompliant with supervised release. However, the Defendant is not certain of the dates when he was compliant, and his argument relates to the pendency of a lease. Because the Defendant has no specific information to support his objection, and because the existence of a lease does not necessarily equal actual physical presence or residence, the objection is denied.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant's objection (Addendum) is denied;
2. The parties are notified that my tentative findings are that the PSR is correct in all respects;

3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

4. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 3 of this Order, my tentative findings may become final; and

5. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 17th day of February, 2009.
